Itinerary:

Day (1)

Wadi Al-Mujib

In the morning, one of ME-WONDERS's drivers picks you up, heading off to Wadi AlMujib, one of the most adventurous rivers in Jordan for hikes and canyoning. Amazing rock formations and panoramic views on top. The drive takes 1:30 to 2 hours.

On arrival, leave your driver at the visitor center at Mujib Bridge, and either follow the trail independently, or hire a local guide (additional cost) to accompany you. Travel to towering sandstone gorge in the Mujib nature reserve near the Dead Sea, and take the easy-to-moderate hike along the "Siq Trail" through the cliffs to a waterfall. Relish the beauty and peace of the steep-sided ravine; watch for wildlife; and be ready to wade through occasional waist-deep pools on route. After about an hour, reach the falls, enjoy the idyllic setting, and depending on rainfall levels, swim in the pools.

Then, make your return, basking in the shade and scenery on the same route back. After your 2- to 3-hour hike, reconvene with your driver and finish with a drop-off back at your Amman hotel.

Accommodation: no accommodation is available for this trip.

Finishing point: Amman (your hotel, previously confirmed by customer).

Driver: English-speaking driver.
